1.	Early Field Experiences	In each education course, students are required to complete a 20 to 40 hour internship. The Ferrum College Teacher Education Program Director requests teachers from Franklin, Patrick, and Henry county as volunteers to participate, with approval from their principal and central administration.	Ferrum students provide tutorial assistance as well as clerical assistance for teachers in these counties. As students progress in the teacher education program, they begin to practice teaching lessons under the tutelage of cooperating teachers.	Franklin County Public Schools; Henry County Public Schools; Patrick County Public Schools; and Roanoke City Public Schools.	Yes
2.	Student Teaching Placements	Area school systems provide opportunities for pre-service teachers to complete program requirements for licensure.	Ferrum College graduates apply for and gain employment in nearby rural school divisions, which may often be hard to staff areas.	Franklin County Public Schools; Henry County Public Schools; Patrick County Public Schools; and Roanoke City Public Schools.	Yes
3.	Clinical Faculty Partnership	Public school teachers have a clinical faculty representative from Ferrum College, who coordinates and supervises early field experiences.	Public school teachers provide feedback to Ferrum College, via the clinical faculty, concerning the needs of their classrooms, as well as reporting on the success of student interns in the field.	Franklin County Public Schools; Henry County Public Schools; Patrick County Public Schools; and Roanoke City Public Schools.	Yes
4.	Tutorial Partnerships	Ferrum College provides specified tutorial opportunities for local schools who express a need for additional support, both during school hours and in after school programs.	Ferrum College partnered with Ferrum Elementary School to provide after-school tutorial assistance in reading and math.	Franklin County Public Schools	No
5.	America Reads	Ferrum College receives funds for work study initiatives that assist local schools with additional tutorial assistance during school hours in the area of reading.	Additional assistance in reading is identified by local schools in partnership with Ferrum College. Work study students are matched to needy students at local schools.	Franklin County Public Schools	Yes
